All songs are available free for use in approved environmental art projects, subject to terms of use outlined below.

Projects that serve to raise awareness of environmental issues and/or help defend and protect our wild places are the criteria for approval.

If you wish to use any of the songs on this page, please email a brief outline of your project to trudi@riversongmusic.com and included the song titles you're intereted in.

When emailing us please confirm that you agree to the terms of use and we will forward you a link to download a wav file for each song.

Terms of Use

1. Credits to include Riversong Music, Scott Bird and the title of the song.
2. Where possible, include a link to www.riversongmusic.com as well as links to the artist's work, which will be provided with the song download link.
3. Where possible, tag Riversong Music in any social media posts.

Notes:

All songs written by Scott Bird. Track 1 was written specifically for our short film 'takayna'. All other songs are instrumental versions of songs that have been released by Scott Bird, except track 4 and 5, which are scheduled for release early 2021. Please note, Scott Bird is available to write and record new works for film.

Links to audio releases listed above are to streaming platforms where the vocal versions of the songs have been released.
